WOULD CLEAN OUT WATER PIPES IN KALAKAUA AVE.

Appropriation of about $8000 was informally asked of the supervisors at Tuesday night's meeting for the cleaning and removal of water mains on Kalakaua avenue by Supervisor William Larsen. He says that the 8 inch mains are about half filled with corrosion and sediment and better service would be rendered the residents of Waikiki if they were taken up and cleaned.

He pointed out the necessity of doing this before permanent pavement is laid on the avenue. He said the main runs under the road for about 8000 feet now and should be removed and relaid in the sidewalk area, in order that it may be more accessible. He asked that the board consider an appropriation for the purpose, the money to be repaid from the revenue of the water department next year, explaining that funds of the department were not now available for the work but will be after January 1.

The matter was referred to the water and sewer committee, of which Larsen is chairman, with instructions to report at the next meeting.

FILM COMPANY PLANS BECOME MORE DEFINITE

Unicorn Film Service Corporation of New York will release the films made by the Hawaiian Motion Picture Corporation. This announcement was made on Tuesday by Dr. H. G. Stafford, supervising director of the company, which was known as the Aloha Film Company.

According to Dr. Stafford the company will be incorporated at $100,000 and a studio costing $15,000 will be erected in the near future. As soon as capable screen artists arrive from the mainland the film company will begin work on the completion of the studio. "Made in Hawaii" will be stamped on all films produced.

SAYS BOARD HAS NO RIGHT TO FIX MARK

According to an opinion submitted to the territorial harbor board by Deputy Attorney General Arthur G. Smith, the board has no right to establish a high water mark for the island of Oahu, a question which the board has been considering for some time, and which was referred to Smith for an answer. He quotes from the law to show that when property lines are founded on high water mark they are constantly changing.

THEATRICAL OFFERINGS GIRL JEKYL AND HYDE STAR PART WAR HORROR IS VIVID IN FILM

J. Warren Kerrigan is responsible for the masterful presentation of a great play which, after a successful run on the mainland, comes to the Empire theater today. "A Shriek in the Night" is a two-act vehicle in which the popular and versatile Kerrigan takes the stellar role. Madge Holdbrooke is appearing exclusively in this drama that deals with the undercurrent of life's stream. There is just sufficient element of the crook play in the production to keep alive the interest to the close. Miss Holdbrooke assumes a dual personality, that of a young woman stamped by pre-natal influence. One character is pleasing and lovable, the other mean and vicious. Helen Leslie and Norbert Myles are members of a company of players who make for the success of the drama.

Allen Hale and Isabel Rea are introduced to Honolulu today in the clever adaptation of Bertrand Muraugh's famous story, "The Man From Town." Little Bud Duncan will return to the Empire in a new comedy, "Guardian Angels." The program will close with the farce, "It Almost Happened."

ALDRICH RECITAL ATTRACTS MANY

It is one of the unique benefits of Honolulu's lucky location on the main route of world travel to have the opportunity of hearing such musical celebrities as Madame Mariska Aldrich.

Mme. Aldrich's recital, which is scheduled finally to take place next Monday evening, promises to be one of the society events of the year. The ticket sale at the Territorial Messenger Service has been large and a big ovation to Mme. Aldrich is assured. The charming personality, beauty of musical phrasing and diction and sympathetic interpretations of her songs have endeared Mme. Aldrich to all her audiences.

Mrs. Edith Simonds will accompany Mme. Aldrich at the piano, and Vernon Tenney, the favored local pianist, will assist in the program by playing two of Granger's pianoforte selections.

THEDA BARA GETS PECULIAR LETTERS

Theda Bara, star of "The Galley Slave," now being shown at the Hawaii theater, creates various impressions upon her followers, as is evidenced by the mail she receives. Recently a letter came to hand from a nervous young woman which reads in part: "I would like to be your secretary. I would not be afraid of you, Miss Bara, for I am not afraid of anything."

The press of New York was particularly loud in its praises of this film upon its release, as a few quotations will show: "A real sensation at last. Worth half a dozen plays put together."—New York Sun. "A thriller if ever there was one."—New York Globe. "Swept a tremendous audience off its feet."—New York Times. "A dramatic triumph."—New York World.

"Try this on your piano" was written on a card accompanying the anonymous gift of a hatchet sent a girl graduate in instrumental music in Kansas City, Mo.
